

Why overturn something beneficial such as the Telephone Consumer Act? Is the FCC that power hungry and cannot leave well enough alone? Peaceful days and nights will be filled with annoying calls again. Our society gets worse all the time.